FAQ

Over the years Sydney Wedding Photography by Katsu have found these questions to be the most frequently asked. If you do not see an answer to your question on this page, please feel free to message Katsu anytime.

Q - Who will be our photographer on our wedding day?

A - Katsu is your photographer and will be photographing your special day from the morning till the night. I am also the one that meet you in person (or Skype) for your consultation.

Q - Do we get to keep all our images?

A - Yes! You will receive a complete set of beautifully edited high-resolution jpeg images on USB. (No watermark)

Q - When will my photos be ready?

A - Your images on USB will be ready within three weeks from the day of your special day. All your photos are professionally edited and retouched individually.

Q - Do we get to see our album design before you make it?

A - Yes! I will send you a link to show your album design before I send off. So you will know exactly what you will be receiving.

Q - How much experience do you have?

A - I have started my wedding photography in 1996. So I have over 20 years experience and photographed over 1,500 happy couples in Sydney and around the world.

Q - Do you travel for weddings?

A - Yes! I have traveled to Blue Mountain, Hunter Valley, Melbourne and Brisbane within Australia. I also offer destination wedding photography. I have photographed in Langkawi in Malaysia, Phuket, Bangkok in Thailand and Tokyo, Kyoto in Japan.

Q - Do you know other wedding suppliers that you have worked in the past that you can recommend?

A - Yes! I have worked with many other wedding suppliers includes Marriage Celebrants, Hair & Make-up artists, Florists, Cake decorators and more. I can recommend only top suppliers that I have worked with. I am confident that you will be happy with them!

Q - Do you offer wedding videography?

A - Yes! I work with an experienced videographer who has very similar style with my style. We are a great professional team and offer top quality services and results from day one you contact to me till we deliver your products. If you enjoy my work, I am confident that you will love his too. Please ask for some sample wedding DVD.

Q - Will we have an opportunity to meet up before we book you?

A - Yes of course! I am more than happy to meet you in person to assist your wedding planning. I would like to find out your needs, preference and we can talk about the details of my packages, helping out your planning the schedule, giving you advise where you can save money, to do things and not to do! If you are too busy, we can chat on Skype first, too.

Q - Do we need to decide the package when we book you?

A - No. You don't need to decide your package until three weeks before your wedding date. If you would like to secure me, I can send you the booking form for you to fill it in and the deposit of $300 will be required. So I will make sure that I will be free all day for your special and you have flexibility to choose your package later.
